Tutoring Experience

With 6 years in education, I've guided students through admission tests like the ESAT, as well as subject exams in English and Literature. My background at Cambridge and Imperial has equipped me with unique insights into competitive exams, enabling me to support students aiming for high performance in rigorous assessments.

In addition to ESAT prep, I also help students with A-Level and AP coursework, focusing on developing strong analytical skills and critical thinking. Many of my students have successfully navigated their exams and secured places at prestigious universities.
